The proportion of women on the boards of listed companies continues to increase marginally

- The proportion of female members elected to the boards of Swedish listed companies has increased by 0.1 percentage points to 34.8 per cent.
- For large companies, the proportion of women is 39.2 per cent, an increase of 0.6 percentage points from last year.
- The proportion of female employee representatives on boards is 29.9 per cent, an increase of 2.6 percentage points.
- Of newly elected board members, 34.9 per cent are women, a decrease from 35.4 per cent last year.
- Among directors that have been classified as not being independent in relation to the companies' major shareholders, 20.3 per cent are women, an increase of 1.5 percentage points from last year.

About these statistics

The Corporate Governance Board carries out an assessment of gender balance on the boards of listed companies every year. This year's review presents the gender balance as of 10 June 2021. The previous published statistics presented gender balance as of 30 June 2020. The statistics were produced by Sven-Ivan Sundqvist on behalf of the Corporate Governance Board and are available on the Board's website, www.bolagsstyrning.se.

The Corporate Governance Board's figures only cover Swedish public limited companies whose shares are traded on a Swedish regulated market, (Nasdaq Stockholm and NGM Main Regulated), as it is these companies that must comply with Swedish company law.
